Spring 2020:
The HQ staff and the officers are aware of GW’s decision to cancel in-person classes for the spring semester. This was a huge disappointment to me and, I’m sure, to many of you. However, we remain committed to providing the best training opportunities available. Right now we do not know what next semester will bring, but we are considering all options open to us. If you have questions you may reach out to me, my staff, or your chain of command. This is a challenging time for all of us, but we remain bound together in the commitment we share and are here to support one another. --MIDN 1/C Murdoch, BCO

Social Media:
As the election cycle continues we must remember that the Department of Defense strives to be apolitical at all times. While we encourage you to be active citizens in our republic, please do not post political content on your social media. This type of content often reflects on all of us and violates the Navy’s guidelines on social media use. You can read the complete guidelines here. (Click Here) and if you have any questions about what you should and should not post please refer them to your chain of command.
